

Community Corrections Alternative Program

---

Referral Unit

The Referral Unit (RU) serves as the interface between P&P Offices and Community Corrections Alternative Program (CCAP) to evaluate participants for participation in CCAP. The RU will jointly develop CCAP Programming Requirements with the supervising P&P Officer to guide the participant's placement to the appropriate CCAP facility and address their ongoing programming needs.

Virginia Department of Corrections
P.O. Box 26963
Richmond, VA 23261
(804) 674-3000

Virginia Department of Corrections

---

Community Corrections Alternative Program Guide

Residential Options

1/30/19

Community Corrections Alternative Program

Community Corrections Alternative Program

Array of Services Utilizing Evidence-Based Modalities

- Cognitive Behavioral Therapy
- Substance abuse programming
- GED preparation and testing
- DOE Computer Literacy Class
- Assistance obtaining identification (birth certificate, social security card, etc.)
- Ready to Work programs to include employment in the community
- Vocational training to include welding, Serve Safe and masonry
- OSHA 10 hour cert training
- Parenting classes
- Veteran services
- Domestic violence classes
- Building Self-Esteem
- Drug screening
- Case planning
- Re-entry planning

Additional Women's Programs

- Trauma classes
- Cognitive community

Community Corrections Alternative Program

- VA Code §19.2-316.2 and §19.2-316.3
- Non-violent felony offenders (see VA Code §19.2-297.1)
- Men—Appalachian (106 beds), Cold Springs (150 beds), Harrisonburg (125 beds) and Stafford (116 beds)
- Women—Chesterfield (160 beds)
- Must not have any self-injury or suicidal attempts within the past 12 months
- Must be physically stable to participate in program requirements
- Potential program participants currently taking or who have been medically approved to stop taking prescribed mental health medications within 60 days of referral or intake will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.
- Must be eligible and accepted prior to sentencing
- No pending charges
- Probation cases, parole cases and technical violators may qualify for CCAP
- Available to all circuit courts and the Parole Board